Civil Action No. 3-98-CV-2903-M

SPECIAL MASTER'S ORDER ON HARRIS' MOTION FOR PROTECTION WITH RESPECT TO DEPOSITIONS

Harris' Motion for Protection with Respect to Depositions was filed on January 4, 2001, and Ericsson's filed a response on January 24, 2001. The special master held a telephone hearing with the parties on Harris' Motion on February 16, 2001, and enters the following order with respect thereto:

- 1. With respect to the deposition of Walter Bratic, Ericsson shall have one additional day of seven hours (as defined by FED. R. CIV. P. 30(d)(2)) to complete Mr. Bratic's deposition.
- 2. With respect to the deposition of Michael Melton, Ericsson shall have two days of seven hours (as defined by FED. R. CIV. P. 30(d)(2)) to complete Mr. Melton's deposition.

432

- 3. With respect to the deposition of all other outside retained experts, the parties shall have two days of seven hours (as defined by FED. R. CIV. P. 30(d)(2)) to complete each such expert deposition.
- 4. If it appears to the parties that additional time is needed to complete these depositions, the parties shall meet and confer and attempt to reach an agreement on the additional time needed for completion. If the parties are unable to reach an agreement, the parties shall contact the special master for resolution.
 - 5. All other relief sought in Harris' Motion is denied.
- 6. Based on Harris' representation that it has produced Melton's files, as requested by Ericsson, Ericsson's counter-motion to compel is denied as MOOT.

SO ORDERED.

SIGNED 1 day of February, 2001, at San Antonio, Texas.
